ALPHA BETA

 Variety is the motto of the Alpha Beta Club. Each meeting offers an element of surprise, as no two meetings are alike. Mr. Cronan has spoken at the meetings of this strictly sophomore club, and the principal and four students of the Perkins Institute for the Blind also have entertained Alpha Beta. As a result of this meeting, the club was invited to visit some of the Institute's functions. Any sophomore knows that to belong to Alpha Beta is the "Beta" thing to do.

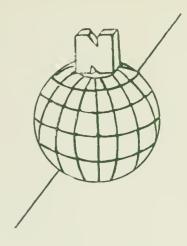

If you were to go to Chicago, and A and B had already gone to New York, what would your chances be of finding a room in a hotel, if A was thirty-eight years old and B was wearing green pants? Any member of the Math Club could tell you the answer, for this year the club voted to delve into advanced algebra. Permutations, combinations, probability, and so forth — all were pondered. Anyone who received an A or B in last year's math course was eligible. Another question of importance which a member is now able to answer is, "In how many different ways can the following letters be arranged: LSMFT?" Truly, the consummation of mathematical research!

The smock-covered artists on high.

The corridor gallery shows off their arts;
Displays in the social room case —
You'll really admit that these people are smart
With their balance, their line, form, and grace.

Although wartime restrictions again grounded the Aviation Club, the members still had the thrill of feeling prop-wash in their faces as the air around them whirred with the propellers of planes executing dangerous tail spins, power dives, and crashes. This scene, reminiscent of La Guardia Field, occurred on April sixth in the gymnasium, where the Aviation Club sponsored an indoor model airplane contest. There, Newton's future Wrights, Sikorskys, and Martins proved that the benefits of plane modeling are more than they are "cracked up" to be.

MAIRSEY DOATS

Meeting twice a week in room 144, many boys who have had little or no previous voice training find an opportunity to become good singers. The group has quite a repertoire of pieces, and the strains of a lullaby or the martial tone of a march may be heard any Monday or Friday on the fourth floor of Building One. One highlight of the year was the group's participation in the Christmas Vespers, when they presented a selection of carols.

CAMERA CLUB

 You have a camera, but do you know how to use it?

You would like to take a good picture, but can you?

You would like to "go in" for "specialties," and develop your own pictures, but do you know how?

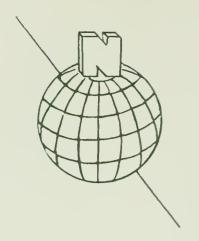

You would like to meet other boys and girls who are deeply interested in taking pictures, but when can they be met?

The answers to all these questions, and more — The Camera Club.

Meetings are held in Room 329 on the second Thursday of each month.

"My kingdom for a horse." These famous words are the motto of Newton High's Cavalry Club, under the auspices of Mr Packard, who has temporarily taken over in Mr. Willard's absence. Any fine day this season, one might have seen a Cavalry Club member, dressed in the traditional Robin Hood outfit, of course, pull up at the sign of the "flying red Sparkplug" and say, "Fill er up with oats; we're rarin' to go." This is more than we car owners can do, so hats off to the Cavalry Club and more power to it—horsepower, we mean.

CHEMISTRY CLUB

Experiment: (1) To learn the fundamentals of qualitative analysis; (2) To prepare exhibits showing Chemistry's vital part in modern industry.

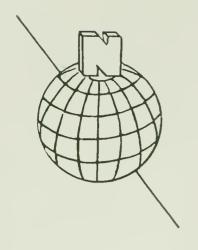

Apparatus: Twenty selected members, one faculty adviser, one lab, eight regular meetings.

Equations: 20 mem. + Chem. knowledge = smells + unknown substances.

Procedure and Observations: (1) Lectures by Mr. Hall; study of analysis; actual experimentation in the laboratory; (2) Subjects were mounted and many interesting exhibits were displayed.

Conclusions: From their many activities the members were made to realize that there was still a "small" bit of chemical knowledge unknown to them.

After a year's respite, the Commercial Club resumed operations under Mrs. Newcomb's direction. This group, open to Junior and Senior girls in the Office Training Curriculum, is unlike many others in that every program is planned by the students. At its meetings, the girls (men are strictly prohibited) enjoyed themselves thoroughly with contests, parties, and general discussion of business problems. At one meeting, Mr. Birmingham gave an interesting talk on office manners, which proved most instructive.

BOARD OF EXPERTS

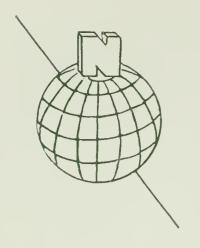

DEBATING CLUB

Under Mr. Holmes' direction this year many subjects of current local, national, and international interest were debated. Verbal wars were fought on such subjects as the fourth term and the United States' part in the post-war, and enlightening discussions followed. In a discussion of What Newton High Can Do to Foster School Spirit, many subjects of pupil interest, such as fraternities and evening dances, were thoroughly discussed. The year's highlight was a double debate with Brookline High.

Francis: Helen, there's something I must say — I love you.
Phyllis: Oh, Peter! (Crosses to his arms.

Curtain.)

(round of applause)
Herb: Well, that's the preview—how goes it?

(gasps of "Oh! Francis")
Alice (face beaming): Certainly looks like a hit.

John: It should be; we've worked hard enough. My back's about broken from carrying Queen Anne furniture around. Ugh!

Such was the scene when the Drama Club had a sneak preview of its major undertaking of the year, Berkeley Square. Other meetings consisted of drama lectures and one-act plays. Although the members suffered 'nervous break-downs' periodically, a good time was had by all.

Through the hazy mist of time Peter Standish returns to the past, to Berkeley Square, London, 1784. Here he tries to take the place of a forebear, Peter Standish; however, everyone senses he is out of place, and only Helen Pettigrew does not fear him. Peter falls in love with her although he knows it really doesn't happen. However, Helen sends him back for his own good. He does return, but leaves his heart with her. This was the Drama Club Play Mrs. Wiens coached so ably. The play was difficult to produce, yet it was well carried through. Berkeley Square, an outstanding performance, has been in keeping with previous Drama Club Plays.

SITTING ON THE SETTING

Just as "behind every man is a woman," behind every Newton High play is the Drama Club Workshop. Neither could function without the other. The Workshop assists with the costumes, scenery, painting, and any other task that will further the success of the play. Under the direction of Mr. Peterson they have toiled this year to help produce Berkeley Square, Stage Door, Peter and the Wolf, and all other Newton High productions.

WORDS, WORDS, WORDS!

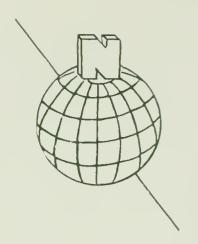

ENGLISH CLUB

 Newton High School's English Club is the oldest student group in the school, and in adding another year, it has spent most of its meetings listening to speakers. Mr. Charles Connick spoke on the making of stained glass and on color. Mrs. Roberta Green of WEEI spoke of her experiences, and Mr. Boyle entertained the club by discussing the short story. The remainder of the meetings were spent with other clubs.

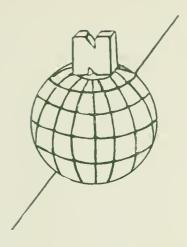

Fresh from the junior highs, the singing starlets are coralled and groomed in the melodious qualities of the human voice. The main opportunity for exhibiting their talent is presented at the Christmas Vespers, on which occasion the audience is thoroughly entertained by the choral work of this group and several others. Other occasions arise at which their capabilities may be demonstrated.

GIRLS' CHORUS Junior - Senior

Adviser Mr. Henry Lasker

Having trilled their merry way through the Sophomore Chorus, this group aspires to greater glory in the field of vocal exhibition. Those who have very good voices are initiated into solo work, and after weeks of practice in striking the high notes and "lalaing" up and down the scale, they lull appreciative audiences to serenity with their results. Requirements for the chorus and solo work are strict. Entrance is open to anyone with reasonable ability.

LET'S HEAR THAT LINE AGAIN

"In the reign of James, the Second, "It was generally reckon'd

"To marry two wives at one time."

Surely no one can forget these words from Trial by Jury, the Glee Club's major production for this year, and certainly we shall not forget the performance of Messrs. Green and Clark as usher and judge, respectively. This group not only entertained us at Beaux Arts, but also stirred us with their rendition of carols at the traditional Christmas Vespers.

If you climbed to the third floor of building one, directed your steps into the Library, turned right, peeked behind a pile of books, what would you discover? Yes, the members of the Library Club, Newton High's service organization. This club helps keep the library in "ship-shape" condition and at the same time learns the functions of the library. However, the members mix plenty of pleasure with business, as was the case when they looked over ancient Newtonians. Gales of laughter from their amusement are still shaking Building One's solid walls. Hmm! Wonder what 1960's Library Club will think when they look us over in 1944's Newtonian?

No scene of Sinatra Swing vs. Melchior Opera is in the Music Club. Still, life is sweet with song-bird voices in sundrenched noons mixed with a little of Gershwin's Rhapsody in Blue and George Frederick Handel's Water Music Suite on a high-jinx afternoon at the Social Room. Or it is made sweeter by carolings of "Bless you, Merry Gentlemen" each Yuletide along with the permeating smell of mince meat and Maine pines, gay notes flitting brazenly about the sedate halls of this, our N. NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Each April in an impressive assembly, the ceremonies for the induction of new members of the National Honor Society are held. This group, composed of juniors and seniors of high scholastic ability, reflects its scholarship through the honor roll, its character in its activities, its service in the lunchroom, the offices, and in many smaller ways, and its leadership both on the campus and in the classroom. Consideration of these four qualities is the main basis for selection of society membership, one of the highest honors that can be conferred on a high school pupil.

The Drama Club wants its members "experienced" and "skilled," and the Neophytes is the club where sophomores attain this experience. Trembling with apprehension, forty selected Thespians pass into the club's folds and begin their training in voice, stage direction, and make-up. At the end of this training they present in the spring a production which is always polished. The Neophytes leave school in June with poise and skill, ready to enter the Drama Club the following September.

You have now before you the thirty-fifth issue of The Newtonian. It is the second of our war issues and is made possible by "Blood (almost), Sweat (at times), Tears (once), and Laughter (frequently)."

The evolution of a dummy was slow but usually sure. Photographs were assigned to their pages, cartoons were created to illustrate the superlatives, cover designs and division page cartoons were worked out, the printer and engraver were often consulted, poses and still more poses for the photographer — and then, almost by magic, The Newtonian.

It is now your yearbook, to recall to you, in days to come, your school days of '43 and '44.

Who, what, when, where, and how are the five essential parts of a news story? They are also the five questions asked by the sophomores about everything at Newton High. Answers to all the questions about any organization, sport, or service at school can be found in the Orange Book. Early in the spring, the twenty-one juniors on the staff were frantically engaged in collecting information. The facts for each write-up had to be gathered, moulded into a concise article, and then approved by the faculty adviser of the organization. Then, after careful arrangement and several trips back-and-forth from the printer, the edition went to press. The resulting book is the valuable possession of sophomores especially, but almost everyone wears the cover to show his school spirit on Orange Days.

CELLO, AGAIN!

The greatest service that this body performed last year was the masterpiece, "Peter and the Wolf," a portion of the Beaux Arts program in March. The individual instrument sections were portrayed by dancers on the stage so that the audience not only heard, but saw the story unfold. In a less conspicuous, but thoroughly appreciated role, the orchestra supplemented with its musical entertainment the Drama Club Play and the Senior Play.

SITTING THIS OUTING IN

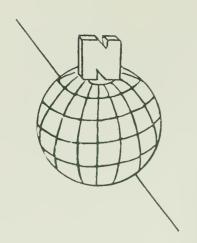

OUTING CLUB

The Outing Club was originally formed with the idea of fulfilling the desires of those girls who enjoy sports and outdoor activities. For many years now its members have found companionship and sociability as they join in skating, bowling, swimming, bicycling, canoeing, skiing, riding or any of the dozens of other activities which are dear to their hearts. The club holds two meetings each month: one, a business meeting to plan that month's trip, with an occasional speaker or movie; and the outing itself later in the month.

Are you a sad sack? Do people quietly designate you as "boring?" Do they shun you? Do you abhor them? Hopeless, aren't you?

Take hold of yourself, grasp at the straws of pleasing personalities, good figures, sleek hair-dos, a bright smile, and all else held dear. In the Personality Club you will find the way to all these glamours and more through quizzes, discussions, and talks by various people who "know how."

Why do Newton High's pupils go to football games? Just to see the games? Partly; and partly because the Friday afternoon rallies have so inspired the students that they must go and cheer their team. The Rally Committee sees to it that speakers — both faculty and students — are on hand, that the cheer leaders are on the job, that everyone is wearing orange — in short, that N. H. S. is organized to cheer its teams on to victory.

RED CROSS CANTEEN GROUP

Adviser Miss Gladys Davis

Last year when the Canteen was formed, the girls spent most of their time in training. This year they worked less as a group and more with their own village canteens. Although they fed the draftees at some send-offs, helped at the Newton Hospital Coffee Shoppe, and a few lucky ones served in the Buddies' Club in Boston, the most regular work was the once-a-week "soda jerking" at the hospital.

SENIOR PLAY

On the nineteenth and twentieth of November, the Senior Class presented to an enthusiastic audience the well-known play, Stage Door. There were over twenty-five roles in the play, each one affording a good chance to display acting ability. The Thesbians made good use of this opportunity, and Stage Door, a mixture of tragedy and comedy, appealed to old and young, as the sell-out proved. Miss Haworth once again directed the cast and helped to make the Senior Play a memorable occasion.

"Two Spades!" "Who's got the latest Life?" "Has anyone seen Tom—!" "Who's making all that noise? I'm trying to study." "Seven no trump." "Oh-h-h-h-h, "Frankie!" "It's O.K. to owe Kaye!"

The foregoing is a typical scene in the Social Room, refuge for all who have some extra time before and after school. It is the panacea for all school worries. Many is the time when a boy, looking for his girl, has been relieved to find her safe in the Social Room, sitting cozily with another male. 324, excluding 127, has been the most frequented room in the school.

Should the Eighteen-year-old be allowed to Vote? What Can Youth Do to Help Solve the Racial Issue? Should the United States Take the Lead in Guaranteeing a Peaceful Post-War World? Who Will be the Presidential Election Candidates?

Newton High's pupils have discovered solutions to these and other vital issues during the past year! The Social Studies Club, realizing the importance of an intelligent citizenry, sponsored several American Town Meeting type programs, and many members are actively supporting the high school radio broadcasts of Junior Town Meeting of the Air. Armed with the weapon of free discussion, the members waged bitter verbal battles until they found the panacea for the problems facing mankind.

Este año el procedimiento más notable del Circulo Español fué su pasión de peregrinar. Cada mes los miembros se congregaron en una sala diferente de la del mes anterior. El "grito de combate" era "¿En qué sesión vamos a comer? ¿Comeremos nosotros el mes que viene?" Estas preguntas tuvieron contestación a la última reunión cuando las muchachas comieron a bocaditos con miradas despreciativas a los muchachos quienes no estaban inquietándose de nada cualquiera sino de los alimientos. Los oradores fueron estudiantes quienes habían estado en paises de origen español. Entre ellos había la señorita Barbara Hayes proveniente de una prisión japonesa, el señor Guillermo O'Reilly de Puerto Rico, y el señor Gerde Tannenbaum de Cuba.

Remember the set of Stage Door or the thunder in Berkeley Square? It was all done by Mr. Pete, Mr. Peltier, and their backstage boys. These are the ones who make and break the sets, bring up and lower the lights, fly the ceilings, take in and let out the curtain, and "kibitz" every play. Necessity is the mother of invention, and whenever anything has to be made for backstage, the men of the Stage Crew are the mother's sons.

TUSITALA STORY-TELLER

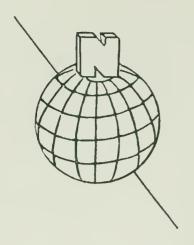

TUSITALA

 At a slim oval table of the Samuel Thurber Room, inspired by busts of their famous predecessor, William Shakespeare, the selected members of Tusitala criticize each other's manuscripts. Still, no austerity clouds this literary organization, devoted to giving its chosen a chance to air some "belles lettres." Tusitala is the only school organization giving interested students an opportunity to improve and develop writing ability. In the past year, Tusitala has discussed and analyzed the short story and poetry in special group meetings.

"And Hannibal, Hannibal, Hannibal— Hannibal crossed the Alps."

Do you speak in a monotone? Or perhaps it's just a mild form of inferiority complex from a perpetually foggy throat, or what your friends term a "queer tone." Develop that hidden talent of speaking; learn to charm your listeners with a beautifully modulated voice. We cannot guarantee your becoming a second Daniel Webster, but maybe the class won't go to sleep when you read the second installment of Cicero. Well, anyway, you will have learned a jolly amount of poetry with which you can astound your devoted family—if no one else.

ATHLETIC COACHES

These are the men whose unceasing efforts have produced Newton's great athletes and teams. These teachers give gladly of their time, in order to receive the satisfaction of placing Newton on the map and of giving some boy a chance to shine among his fellow men. So whenever a team wins a championship or an athlete becomes all-scholastic, go out of your way to shake the hand of the coach that taught them how.

QUIET DOWN, RYAN, OR YOU'LL WAKE JASSET

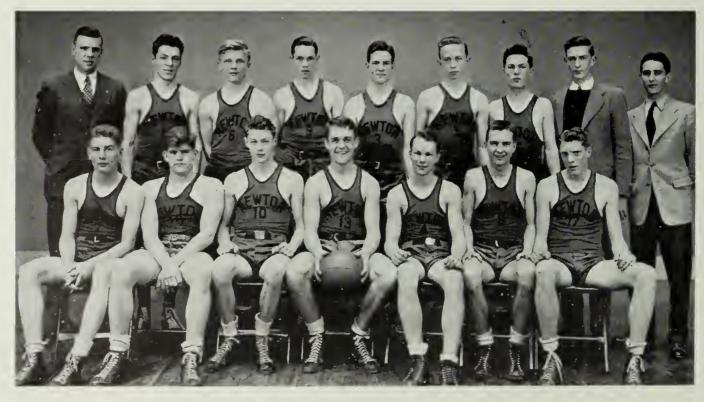

Finishing in a second place tie with Brookline, the fellows showed real calibre, for they turned what promised a season in the cellar into a first-rate brand of basketball. Coach Huston has a golden future in the next two years, for his varsity sophomores saw more action than his seniors and downed many a veteran team. With our rival, Brookline, the boys really gave it all in this, the last game. Though it was close every minute, Newton prevailed 34–25, thus clinching a second place tie. Roger Bryant was elected honorary captain.

CHEER LEADERS

Adviser Mr. William Winston

The fine school spirit of our cheer leaders has won them recognition well deserved. They have done a fine job by their unceasing efforts to bring out the spectators' best support at our rallies, football and basketball games. In rain or shine they came to give their all in backing our teams. The proverb, "No rest for the weary," may well be applied to this group, for weary they were after many of our games; yet untiring lung work has always brought them through with great results. May the many squads that follow this one again fling high the banner of traditional spirit that leads our teams to victory.

INVASION TACTICS

Remember the way "plunging Marvin" caved in the opposition with human battering-ram tactics, causing the fans to howl for glee, especially in the Medford contest? With all due respect to the rest of the boys in the line, we must admit that Chuck Bryson was found the big man in every pile-up, particularly twice on our one-yard line against Malden. Bob Morrell sparkled in that right end spot by smashing formations all season. Noel Roberts did most of the heaving and foot work. The score of the Rindge game, 47-0, made it look as if Newton were a sure thing for the State Championship. The fellows did play brilliant ball at times, but it was too inconsistent to better the record of two wins, two deadlocks, and five defeats.

Newton High School couldn't buy enough wreaths of glory to demonstrate sufficiently her admiration for this brilliant Hockey squad. An all-time record of six straight shut-outs reveals only a glimpse of their smashing success, for the boys came up from the bottom of the league to finish in third place. Five Newton pucksters were chosen for the first and second string All-Stars. Goalie Dana Switzer holds the new amazing record of 1881 minutes without an opponent scoring. Bob Wilson's and Frank Masterson's outstanding performances in the guard slots should also be mentioned in connection with the team's epic-making success.

"This is one of the greatest track teams in Newton's history, and you all know we've had the best in New England," Coach Consodine has been heard to declare. Though we lost to Malden by one point and to Boston English 30–29½ in the thrilling State Meet, these decisions might easily have gone our way. Bob Morrell and Ross Humphrey received top honors, being crowned State Champions. The outstanding performance was given in the Northeastern Meet, when Newton's flying tigers scored in every event and captured the coveted trophy.

"1945" Numerals were awarded to the juniors for winning the Inter-Class Tournament. In the Inter-School Tournament, the sophomores and juniors defeated their opponents with the following results: Sophs: Needham 12, Newton 46; Brookline 13, Newton 41; Wellesley 16, Newton 50; Watertown 9, Newton 23. The Juniors defeated Needham 38–10, Wellesley 30–14, Brookline 37–34, Watertown 35–7. The leading scorers were Joyce Gray, 77 points; Norma Simmons, 52; and Pauline Bedigian, 37 points. The season ended with the Alumnae-Varsity game, resulting in a 28–28 tie. With such great teams shaping up among the Juniors and Sophs, Miss Breivogel can surely look forward to many Newton victories in the next two years.

After two weeks of practice, class teams were chosen and engaged in a tournament which was won by the Senior Team. Following that, first and second varsities were chosen and exciting inter-school games were played with the following results: First Team: Needham 2, Newton 1; Newton 3, Wellesley 1; Watertown 4, Newton 1; a game with Swampscott was suspended in the first half with Swampscott leading 2-0. The second varsity defeated Needham 6-0, and tied Watertown 0-0. Because of a downpour, the Alumnae game was also suspended. One of the highlights of the year was the attendance of the First Varsity at a hockey umpiring conference held at Winsor School.

MODERN DANCING

Faculty Adviser . Miss Jane Forte

The lissome lassies of Newton High have, under the inspiring direction of Miss Forte, danced their way through another successful year, climaxed by a recital given in March, Peter and the Wolf being one of the main attractions. The novices, of whom there were many enthusiasts, were introduced to the fundamentals of the modern dance on Mondays and participated in the recital dancing in "Creole Sketches." The advanced group are chosen by tryouts for their effort and ability and have an excellent opportunity to create their own dances. The girls were fortunate this year in having one of their members, Pat Biggins, compose a waltz which was used on the program.

GHOULIE

Speedball, the latest addition to the fall sports program, is a combination of soccer and basketball; the new game was received with great enthusiasm. After long practice sessions on Tuesdays and Thursdays, an exciting class tournament was held between a sophomore team and a "hash" team, made up of seniors, juniors, and sophomores. The first game was won by sophs, 7-6. The "hash" team, led by Captain "Bubby" Loveland, captured the second contest, 5-4, thus making the series even. After a hard struggle, the "hash" team won the final game and the tournament by a close one goal margin of 6-4. Members of this team who played two or more games were awarded shields.

It's Time to turn to A&P...

if getting big values from your food dollar is important to you.

A & P's cost of bringing foods from source to your market basket is far below average. This means you get more for your money at A & P Super Markets.

We Know Our Under-Grads

THE UNDER-GRADS OF NEW ENGLAND KNOW US

There is a bond of good will that exists between Kennedy's and the smart young men of New England. Our many years of experience in satisfying their demands for their special kind of clothes the right styles at the right time . . have given us a place in their wardrobe planning that we are indeed proud to have. And parents are just as enthusiastic in their approval of prices which are geared to the times. SHOP
